LOCATION

Ex Cartiera Latina - Nagasawa exhibition hall and conference room.

The ex Cartiera Latina, one of the few surviving industrial plants in the city of Rome, is unique for its architecture and strategic position. On the Appian Way near the Aurelian Walls, within the Appia Antica Park.

The prestigious, multi-functional complex has two exhibition halls (Nagasawa and Appia) and a conference room, a library, and a naturalistic educational exhibition space "Di Natura" where schools and families run activities for educational purpose. There is also an Info Point with a bookshop.

Outside there is a botanic garden called "Hortus Urbis", an educational area, and an area equipped for parking.
